

Journey to the Cross
Water into Wine
John 2:1-12

We live in a society that is seeking to redefine morality because it is easier to change the rules than to change our preferences and choices of lifestyle. If we don't like where we are headed, we don't change direction, we just re-label our destination. That worldview might help us in this world, but the kingdom doesn't allow for a change in label. It calls for a change in direction, a change of heart.

1. His power will be revealed in His _____

2. His power will be executed in His _____

3. His power will be demonstrated for His _____

The cross provides for us a way to be changed. It extends mercy and forgiveness that empowers a change of heart. It calls us into a relationship with our Creator and allows us to fellowship with Him. God has made a way for our brokenness to be fixed, but we must be willing to be changed.
