

For Freedom Christ Has Set Us Free
Depending on God
Galatians 2:20; John 4:47

As babies we were totally dependent on others to care for us. Babies cannot do anything for themselves. Naturally, as parents, we like to see them grow up to be self-sufficient and independent. We are proud of them when they can finally take care of themselves.

1. The _____ of the Christian life matters

A. I _____

B. I am _____

C. I am _____

2. The _____ of the Christian life matters

A. The _____ of Jesus takes care of the past

B. The _____ of Jesus takes care of the future

C. The _____ of Jesus takes care of the now

3. The _____ of the Christian life matters

A. The _____ of faith is _____

B. The _____ of faith is _____

C. The _____ of faith is _____

The Bible tells us that without faith it is impossible to please God (Heb. 11:6.) God pleasure in us is not based on our performance for Him; instead, God's pleasure in us is based on Christ's performance for us. Because Christ loves us, we can trust Him to be everything we need or want, but it calls for us to be dependent upon Him.
