

Unstoppable Gospel
A Community Powered by God
Acts 2:41-47

Our culture has grown fond of defining spirituality in individual terms. The secular nature of our society creates an atmosphere that suggests that even talking about faith is an imposition on others. Many people want faith but they want to define it for themselves and keep it to themselves.

The gospel calls us into a relationship with our Creator and the Bible teaches that everyone must embrace the gospel for themselves. The gospel also calls us into a relationship with others and we find fulfillment in that calling in the church. When we are bound together in community by God, the gospel that He has entrusted to us becomes unstoppable.
