

What Child Is This?
He Is a Compassionate Friend
Luke 1:26-38

When it comes to busyness, our culture really ramps it up a notch during the holidays. We have meals to prepare, gifts to buy, cards to send, houses to clean, decorations to hang, and the list goes on. We fill our days with activities and to-do lists. We must be careful because in our busyness we may just miss this thing called Christmas.

1. Like Mary, we should _____
 - A. We rejoice because _____
 - B. We rejoice because _____
2. Like Mary, we do not _____
 - A. Fear is in our _____
 - B. Fear keeps us _____
 - C. Fear steals our _____
3. Like Mary, we focus on _____

He is our Compassionate Friend

- Jesus valued people with _____
- Jesus valued children with _____
- Jesus valued relationship with _____

What Child is this? He is the One who loved others. He was selfless and sacrificing beyond measure. He was kind and considerate even when experiencing His worst day in the worst way. He was the One who suffered compassionately for all so that we could live eternally with our Creator. He is a compassionate friend to those who place their trust in Him.
