Jesus Teaches
Mark 4:1-9

Life is a non-stop series of learning events. Some people go to official institutions to learn while others enroll in the school of hard knocks. Either way, we are designed to learn. Just when we think we have everything figured out, it all changes. Just when we think there is nothing more to know, Jesus changes everything.

There comes a time when we have to stop hearing and start listening. There comes a time when in order for us to receive what Christ is offering, we have to have the right heart, the right intention, the right motivation. There comes a time when we need to surrender our hearts to him so that we can enjoy the life changing benefits that Jesus offers His teaching.
