

Leviticus: A Call to Holiness
Experiencing Peace with God
Leviticus 3:1-17

There is a bumper sticker that says, “No Jesus, no peace. Know Jesus, know peace.” It is cliché but true. We all want peace, but we aren’t really sure what it looks like because peace is the antonym of many different themes—war, chaos, strife, and worry. We want peace, but too often we want it on our terms.

1. Peace requires _____ with God
 - A. We must recognize our _____
 - B. We must recognize our _____
 - C. We must recognize our _____
2. Peace allows _____ with God
 - A. We _____ communion
 - B. We _____ thanksgiving
 - C. We _____ life together
3. Peace comes through the _____ of Jesus
 - A. Christ is our _____
 - B. Christ is our _____
 - C. Christ is our _____

Peace is a function of both the finished work of Christ and the ongoing work of the Spirit. Through Jesus we have peace with God, and through Jesus we have the peace of God. Jesus said, “My peace I give to you” (John 14:27). As we live in fellowship with God, His Holy Spirit produces in us the fruit of the Spirit such as love, joy, and peace. Are you at peace?
