

Jesus Changes Everything
Jesus Rules
Mark 4:35-41

Our society has created a culture that seeks to understand freedom in terms of action without consequence. We live in a generation that believes that it shouldn't be held accountable for its actions or that we should be provided some remedy that will allow us to live as we please without consequence.

We face storms every day. Some of us are living in an upside down, totally chaotic world right now. Some of us are like the disciples, trying to row our way out of it, denying any consequence and really only delaying the inevitable. Some of us are crying out to him and are waiting for the storm to pass. The Bible makes it very clear, "Those who call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved."
