

Leviticus: A Call to Holiness
Service God's Way
Leviticus 6:8 – 7:38

Our culture prides itself on ingenuity and innovation. We are constantly searching for new and improved methods in manufacturing and service industries that will increase efficiency and productivity. While God has given us much freedom in worship, there are still some principles that show a willingness to do God's work God's way.

1. We _____ on God's _____
 - A. We have constant _____ to God
 - B. We have constant _____ from God
 - C. We see constant _____ by God
2. We _____ for worship _____
 - A. Offerings literally _____ their leaders
 - B. Offerings do not _____ God
3. We maintain _____ before God
 - A. We respect the means to _____
 - B. We respect the means to _____

People sometimes wear crosses as jewelry with no thought about their meaning, but the cross is where the almighty God of the universe set aside His commands regarding the sacrifice of animals and grain and He Himself became the sacrifice for sin. Every time we see a cross we should be reminded that through His death, we are offered forgiveness and freedom.
