

Leviticus: A Call to Holiness
Are You Ready to Serve?
Leviticus 8:1:36

Diversity is a good thing. We are all different. We have different personalities, strengths, weaknesses, talents, and gifts. Strengths of individuals are pooled together in marriages, civic clubs, the workplace, and the church in order to more efficiently handle the responsibilities that come from belonging to such organizations and institutions.

1. We make a _____ to service
2. We are _____ for service
3. We seek _____ for service
4. We demonstrate _____ in service
5. We enjoy _____ with God in service

When we embrace the cross of Christ and place our trust in His finished work, God forgives us for the sin that separates us from Him, and then, because of the righteousness of Christ, He takes up residence with us and in us in the form of the Holy Spirit. He does so not just to seal us for eternal life, but to empower us to service in His kingdom. Are you ready to serve?
