

Leviticus: A Call to Holiness
The Wrath Side to Holiness
Leviticus 10:1-20

There is no such thing as a choice without a consequence, a cause without an effect. We live in a world that wants all the upside to good choices and none of the downside of bad choices. We want to multiply the rewards and minimize the penalties. When it comes to God, we want the resurrection without the cross. But without the cross, there is no resurrection.

1. In worship we _____ a holy God
2. In worship we _____ a powerful God
3. In worship we _____ a just God
4. In worship we _____ a prescribing God
5. In worship we _____ a gracious God

These days it is not popular to talk about God's wrath. But salvation is only applied if we know that we need to be saved and we are willing to embrace God's provision for it. The wrath of God is an integral part of redemptive history and the fulfillment of God's purposes. It should serve to intensify the gratitude that drives us to worship the one who is worthy of our worship.
