

Leviticus: A Call to Holiness
Maintaining Holiness in Childbirth
Leviticus 12:1-8

Our world is a violent world. Our culture has followed in the footsteps of past civilizations where violence and death rule the day. Our government legitimizes and rationalizes infanticide through the mantra “pro-choice.” Enlightenment, modernity, and advances in technology seem to move us closer to secularism and away from God. Is it possible that all of our problems stem from an unwillingness to celebrate life the way God intended?

1. God’s commands celebrate _____
2. God’s commands provide a _____
3. God’s commands reveal _____

The New Testament teaches us that the law is a teacher that leads us to Jesus. We are reminded in the law that God is the Sovereign Ruler over all of life. He intends for our lives to be different from those who have yet to place their trust in Jesus. We are all sons of the first Adam, unclean and destined for death. But in the second Adam, Jesus, we find forgiveness and eternal life.
