

Leviticus: A Call to Holiness
Holiness through Atonement
Leviticus 16:1-34

We don't always experience the consequences that our choices deserve. We take risks and when we get away with things we are emboldened to repeat them. The human race has, at least in our minds, gotten away with sinful behaviors for so long that we fail to understand the seriousness of sin and its potential destruction.

1. Atonement is necessary because _____
  - A. Sin _____ us
  - B. Sin _____ our environment
2. Atonement is necessary for _____
  - A. Our sin is _____
  - B. Our sin is _____
3. Atonement is accomplished at the _____
  - A. Jesus is the _____
  - B. Jesus is the _____

Hebrews 4:16 says, "Therefore let us approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us at the proper time." In this new covenant age, because of God's grace in Jesus, He welcomes us into His presence not merely one day per year, but every day of our lives.
