

Savior Supreme
It Starts with Faith
Colossians 1:1-8

We all prioritize. Sometimes we are more intentional about our priorities and sometimes we prioritize at a sub-conscious level. Whether we plan our days or our days are planned for us, whether we like it or not, our life operates in priorities. Some days are more chaotic than others. So when it comes to priorities, where do we start?

Roman _____ has significant bearing on Colossians

- Roman _____ made the world _____
- Roman _____ made the world _____
- Roman _____ made the world _____

The _____ needed to hear two things:

Rome is not your _____

Jesus is not the _____ thing; He is the _____ thing

1. The gospel calls us to _____ the church
2. The gospel tells us our _____ is in heaven
3. The gospel is _____ wherever it goes

The gospel infiltrates every culture and every era. It spreads across geographical boundaries, socio-economic boundaries, and ethnic boundaries. The Christian faith is not some blind faith that tells us to cross our fingers and hope for the best. It is a reasonable faith lived out and proven historically in every era and in every culture. The recognition of the Savior Supreme in our own lives starts with faith in the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Reflection

Think about the questions asked tonight. Where have you put your hope? If you asked a close friend or relative, would they say that your hope is in Christ? Consider your love for Christ and think about how well it is matching up with your love for the church. What are some things that need to change in order to better demonstrate your love for God's people?
