

Leviticus: A Call to Holiness
Holiness in Leadership
Leviticus 21-22

The world has certain presuppositions regarding what it calls successful leadership. For many people the source of effective leadership is found in skill and strength, talent and tenacity. Even many leaders believe that they influence strictly by the strength of their personalities.

Possession of godly character, alone, assures true _____, lasting _____,
and durable _____. Therefore spiritual leaders:

1. Are called to a _____ standard
2. Reflect God's truth in _____
3. Represent God's design in _____
4. Present _____ offerings to God
5. _____ God through the New Covenant

Godly leadership cannot be developed apart from the influence of the Holy Spirit. Nothing is more demanding in the development of a leader's character than to stand in humility before the corrective promptings of the Holy Spirit. As believers in Jesus called to advance His kingdom, we must refuse any path that offers a perception of achievement without the real pursuit of true holiness.
