

Leviticus: A Call to Holiness
When We Know God
Leviticus 24:1-23

When some people enter a room, everything changes. They seem to just command respect. It may be because of some aspect of their personality or the affection and admiration that people have for them, or it may be simply because of their position of authority.

Once we realize that we live in the _____ of God,
how should we then _____?

1. We _____ God _____
2. We _____ with God _____
3. We _____ to God _____
4. We _____ to people _____

In Leviticus God gave the tabernacle and later the temple in Jerusalem to communicate His presence to His people. In the New Testament, God has given us Himself in Jesus to communicate His presence. John 1:14 says that Jesus became flesh and took up residence among us. When we know Jesus, we know God. How should we then live?
