

Savior Supreme
Killing Disobedience
Colossians 3:5-6

In our culture, freedom is defined as being able to do whatever one wants to do without consequence. Our society believes that individuals should get to choose their own versions of right and wrong. In fact in the name of tolerance, it is immoral to speak of other people's behaviors in terms of obedience or disobedience.

5. Put to death _____

We live in a world that wants the blessings and promises of the resurrected Christ, but in order to get to the resurrection we must first endure the cross. Jesus told his followers that in order to come after Him, they must take up their cross, deny themselves, and follow Him. We put to death those things that are fleshly. We crucify them so that we might follow Jesus and live in the power of His resurrection.

Reflection

What steps have you taken to put to death those things that rob your affections for Christ? Are you actively killing disobedience or are you simply managing the symptoms of it? Read Ephesians 6:10-18 and consider what it would look like for the armor of God to be real in your life and how putting on the armor relates to the grace driven effort we have talked about in prior weeks.
