

Leviticus: A Call to Holiness
Either-Or
Leviticus 26-27

Every situation and every idea we encounter requires a decision and what we decide will determine how we act. We constantly face choices between acting for our own pleasure or acting to do what is right. Neither direction of living will bring our lives meaning without God.

1. God calls us to _____
2. God blesses our _____
3. God judges our _____
4. God invites us to _____

God always intended to bless the nations through the One who would eventually come from among them—Jesus. We are all guilty sinners and deserve the wrath of God, but Jesus took our sin and its curse upon Himself when He died in our place on the cross. When we put our trust in Jesus, He takes away our sin and its penalty. When we trust in Jesus, He frees us to pursue our call to holiness.
