

Believe
John 20:30-31

Most organizations have some form of vision and mission statement. They have an idea of where they want to go and what they need to do to get there. These statements are usually published so that everyone in the organization can take ownership in the vision and mission of the group.

As a church we are committed to telling the good news of Jesus Christ because it is a message worth embracing. It is a message worth believing. We must believe, not just with our minds, but with our hearts that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God if we ever hope to enjoy eternal life with the Creator.
