

The Apostles' Creed
Jesus Christ, the only Son, Our Lord
Matthew 16:13-18

There are a lot of opinions about Jesus. For some He is a sage to be read and admired for simply trying to create a new philosophy or worldview. For some He is a political activist advocating everything from feminism to liberation theology. For some He is a spiritual mystic who is simply included in lists of rabbis, prophets, and gurus. We have a tendency to make Jesus who we want him to be.

1. Jesus is the _____
2. Jesus is the _____
  - A. He is _____ with the Father
  - B. He walks in a _____
  - C. He is a part of the _____
3. Jesus is our _____

We have a King who is absolute in power. There is nothing in the universe that can stand against Jesus and His power and authority. And yet He chooses to use that power and authority to rescue us, to save us. He is tender-hearted towards us, demonstrating not only His love for us at the cross, but His lovingkindness towards us through the ongoing work of the Holy Spirit. His grace is immeasurable. This King Jesus is no tyrant. He is the Savior of the world.
