

The Songs of Christmas
The Angels' Song
Luke 2:8-14

Throughout the history of the Old Testament, God had been preparing his people for a huge announcement. He had been telling them about a Messiah that was going to come. He told them through their religious rituals and through their prophets. But they stopped listening, and God stopped talking.

What do we do with good news? Are we troubled by it? Are we skeptical of it? Are we grateful for it? The shepherds explored that which was made known to them. God has done everything to make Himself known in Creation. He has made Himself known in His Word. He has made Himself known here in this place. What will we do with the good news of God?
