

Revelation: The Promise of Glory
The Corrupt Church in Thyatira
Revelation 2:18-29

We live in a day of moral revolution. The moral revolutionaries claim that hate hides behind the constitutional right for citizens to think and live according to deeply held religious convictions. They claim a new erotic liberty that they say should take precedence over both the God-given right to life and the constitutionally defined rights of freedom of speech, press, and religion.

1. The gospel is more than _____
2. The gospel is perfectly _____
3. The gospel is perfectly _____
4. The gospel gives us _____

Corruption is an inherent part of our Genesis 3 world. We are broken and subject to the effects of that brokenness. The good news of the gospel is that God's character is not compromised by our sin. It doesn't settle for creation to be something less than God intended. It promises to transform creation into God's original design. It promises to restore the relationship for which we were created.
