

Revelation: The Promise of Glory
The Faithful Church in Philadelphia
Revelation 3:7-13

Faith is a spiritual concept that is difficult to define with a finite vocabulary. In fact, it takes at least two words today to adequately describe faith—believe and trust. These words show us that faith is not just an exercise in intellect, but it is also an activity demonstrated through actions and attitudes.

1. Jesus holds the _____ of David
2. Jesus opens a _____ to believers
3. Jesus will _____ His people
4. Jesus will _____ His people
5. Jesus will _____ His people

Today, Christians can often feel left out. Christians are being pushed to the margins of society where opportunities for success in business, politics, and community life may be limited, but Christians are not at all victims. Whatever we lack, whatever we think we are missing out on, Jesus promises much more in return.
