

Revelation: The Promise of Glory
A Glimpse of Glory
Revelation 4:1-11

We are all wired to worship. We all worship someone or something. In secular humanism, people bow the knee to the god of self and self-sufficiency. Just because we grew up in church doesn't necessarily mean our worship is rightly focused. We conflate worship and service to the point where we worship serving rather than the One whom we serve.

1. Worship connects us to a _____ God
2. Worship connects us to a _____ God
3. Worship connects us to a _____ God

God invites us into His presence. He invites us to meet Him, know Him, submit ourselves to Him, and serve Him. Worship is the mechanism by which all of this takes place. Apart from worship we remain disconnected from God. Built into the gospel is the call to worship, the call to communion with God. It is a communion made possible by the finished work of Christ at the cross.
