

Revelation: The Promise of Glory
The Purpose for Glimpses of Glory
Revelation 4-5

I have heard people say that church people can be so heavenly minded that they are of no earthly good. While some people might think their only act of service to the kingdom is to occupy a pew one hour a week, we know from Scripture that worship and the glimpses of the glory of God in worship, serve a much bigger purpose than participation in religious ritual.

1. The glory of God compels us to _____
2. The glory of God empowers us to _____
3. The glory of God enables us to _____
4. The glory of God motivates us to _____

Jesus told His followers that all authority in heaven and on earth had been given to Him. Decades later, He opened the door to heaven to give the church (through the pen of John) a glimpse of the actual transfer of authority and to remind them and us of the command to faithfully steward the gospel with love and with urgency.
