

Revelation: The Promise of Glory
The Last Days
Revelation 6:1-11

Our society is enamored and somewhat infatuated by the prospect of the end of the world. Our imaginations through books and movies have envisioned the end coming by way of everything from huge asteroids to tiny viruses. What we should notice about all of those end of times stories is that man is always the hero, able to find some solution to save the world.

1. The arrangement seems _____ not chronological.
2. The visions build toward a climactic _____.
3. The timing of Revelation involves the _____.
4. The theme of Revelation is the _____.

Revelation reminds us that while the war has already been won, we are still in the fight. The purpose of Revelation should cause us to rise up and be faithful to this gospel, to patiently endure in this world, and proclaim this gospel wherever we go around the world until the Lamb of God returns to claim the full reward for His sufferings. Jesus is coming for His church. When He comes, will He find us faithful with the gospel that has been entrusted to us?
