

Revelation: The Promise of Glory
The Kingdom of Christ
Revelation 11:1-19

We all have hobbies. We have things that entertain us, keep us occupied, test our motor skills, and let us mindlessly chill. We end up with trophies in the case or on the wall, something to display our passion and the results of it. Too many people treat religion like a hobby. Revelation reminds us that the life of a Christian and the mission of Christ is not a hobby.

1. The kingdom comes through _____.
2. The kingdom comes through _____.
3. The kingdom comes through _____.
4. The kingdom comes through _____.
5. The kingdom comes through _____.

In response to His coming kingdom, we must with urgency go and take the gospel of Jesus to every part of the world. We must pray as our Lord prayed, that God's kingdom will be done on earth as it has already been established in heaven. May He find us faithful to the commands of His revealed Word.
