

Living a Godly Life in an Ungodly World
Worship Continually
2 Chronicles 15:10-19

A common cry in our culture is: "I don't have enough time!" We live busy lives, but have you noticed that we always seem to find the time to do the things we want to do? Most people limit their worship to just a few hours each week, some even less frequently. If how we use our time is a statement about what is important to us, what do our schedules say about the importance of worship?

Live your life as an _____ of worship.

1. Worship is meant to be _____.
2. Worship is meant to be _____.
3. Worship is meant to be _____.

Jesus never asks His followers to do something He wasn't first willing to do Himself. His expectation for worship through daily obedience is no different than that which He modeled for us in the gospels. For Jesus, obedience to the Father was personal. It was productive. And it was pricier than we could ever imagine. Let's take up our cross daily and follow Him.