

Living a Godly Life in an Ungodly World
Leave a Legacy
2 Chronicles 17:1-13

Most parents want to leave a good inheritance for their children and grandchildren, but if physical stuff is all one generation leaves to the next, then their grown children will suffer loss. We should strive to pass something of value and permanence to our children. We have the heavy responsibility of not only leaving something to our children but of enabling them to give something to their world.

1. Parents want children who _____ for the future.
2. Parents want children who _____ an evil culture.
3. Parents want children who _____ of others.
4. Parents want children who _____ their peers.
5. Parents want children who _____ them.

We need to be praying that our actions would leave a gospel legacy for our children to follow, that our children would learn to love Christ because they saw a love for Christ in us. Our children need to see us turning away from ungodliness, tearing down idols, and worshiping the one, true God without compromise. Through the cross, Christ offers us a legacy of eternal life.