When God Speaks
Genesis 1:1-2:3

Our worldview is not developed in a vacuum and neither is it completely self-determined. We are all influenced in our way of thinking by someone or something. It isn't necessarily just one voice speaking into our worldview, but we definitely order the importance and weight of the voices around us.

3. There is a distinction between _____ and _____.

We must accept creation as a gift, guard it as a precious treasure, and enjoy it for the glory of God. As believers, we love what God loves and the Bible is clear, "God so loved the world." Through the cross, Jesus is actively redeeming all of creation and claiming all that was rightfully His in the first place. The question is, "Will we walk in light or hide in the darkness?"
