

How to Know God's Will
God's Will and the Holy Spirit
1 Corinthians 2:6-16

Are you ever surprised or offended by the opinions of people at your workplace or among your family members? Do you hear what is said in various media outlets and wonder if the entire world has lost its mind? As followers of Jesus, we shouldn't be surprised. A biblical worldview is considerably different from that of belief systems, even some religious systems.

The Holy Spirit will _____ us in knowing God's will.

1. The Spirit reveals the _____ of the gospel.
2. The Spirit _____ our thoughts to God's thoughts.
3. The Spirit empowers _____ and _____.

Ultimately, the Holy Spirit leads us to the mind of Christ. We grow in grace and spiritual maturity when we learn to think the way Christ does, view problems the way Christ does, and see success and suffering from Christ's perspective. As with all growth, spiritual growth is a process and knowing God's will is a process. The Holy Spirit guides this process by providing for us every resource of heaven.
