

Genesis
Back to Basics
Matthew 7:24-27

Everyone chooses how they will develop their worldview—what they will allow as influences and what they will deem untrue or irrelevant. We all establish our lives and our life principles on something. The challenge for each of us is to define that “something.” Then, we must put into practice those driving principles that determine how we live in and see the world.

1. God is real, and we can trust Him.

2. We live in a creation designed by God for us.

3. We are made in the image of God.

4. God designed marriage and intimacy.

5. Satan is a real but defeated enemy.

6. Living in God’s design provides the most rewarding life possible.

The Christian life isn’t always the easiest life, but it is the most satisfying and rewarding life. These are just a few of the basic principles found in Genesis 1-11. When we give our lives to Christ and begin to build on these basic truths, we build on solid foundations that cannot be moved. To ignore these basic principles is to build on the sand and make a life that won’t survive the storms of life or the final judgment from God. Jesus calls us back to the basics.
